

Highlights from Saunders College of Business Alumni

Why Saunders/RIT?

RIT has good atmosphere for study with many opportunities of Financial Aid, such as merit-based scholarship and on campus jobs. It's a nice experience in my life.

Preparing for the future:

My current job includes a lot of excel financial modeling, which I did benefit from Financial Modeling class at RIT. All other courses I took at RIT help me pass Financial Risk Manager (FRM) Part I and Part II exams, and also helped me pass CFA Level I and II. I am currently a CFA Level III candidate.

MS in Finance, 2012

Employer: Morgan Properties

Title: Financial Analyst

Home City: Beijing, China

Nan (Allen) Yun

The education from RIT prepared me well for the job market. Through the co-op program, I was able to gain internship experience at Merrill Lynch that helped with my job search post graduation.

Merrill Lynch is the wealth management division of Bank of America. Headquartered in New York City, Merrill Lynch employs over 15,000 financial advisors and manages $2.2 trillion in client assets. Merrill Lynch Wealth Management has the financial advisors and expertise to help achieve financial goals at any stage of life or career.
